

LADIES PAINT AND CHAT

This year Desert Therapy is running week-long intensive social skills groups. They will run for 1 hour each day, during the proposed weeks.

Participants will learn and have the opportunity to practice social skills through a morning tea and painting session lead by a qualified speech pathologist.

The sessions will be based around a theme for conversation and painting, for example, a local event such as Parrtjima, or a holiday like Easter.

Social skills targeted include:

- Initiating Interactions
- Using Body Language
- Understanding Social Expectations
- Taking Turns
- Establishing Friendships
